Our Next Meeting

Tuesday October 22, 2024 7PM

All meetings are held the 4th Tuesday of each month @7PM for a sandwich pot luck followed by a historical program and our monthly meeting.

Visitors are welcome

Location: Comanche Merchantile
100 N. Houston st. Comanche Tx.

1st Lieutenant's Report

Greetings compatriots,

We had an awesome turnout at the Comanche Pow Wow, with lots of people visiting our tent. The weather was perfect. The By Gone Days in Stephenville wasn't as good of a showing, but we had fun and sold some raffle tickets and a bit of merchandise. Thank you to everyone who came to help. You can visit our Facebook page to see pictures.

Kickapoo is our next event to help with. It is Saturday 19 at Lipan. Come join in the fun and camaraderie. I look forward to seeing everyone at our next meeting. We will be nominating officers for election in November. I will be giving a presentation on Missouri Partisan Rangers.

May God bless you and may God bless Dixie,

Dave Guise

1851 Brass Frame Confederate Griswold & Gunnison

Pietta 1851 Confederate Navy Black Powder Revolver

This six-shot .44 caliber revolver was made under contract to the Confederate government. It is a brass framed copy of the Colt 1851 Navy revolver. Connecticut Yankee Samuel Griswold set up a cotton gin factory in Georgia in 1830. The village of Griswoldville grew around the factory. In 1862, Griswold produced pikes for volunteers from the state of Georgia. The factory soon began producing revolvers for the Confederacy. No other Confederate factory produced more revolvers than Griswold & Gunnison. Griswoldville was the first town burned by Sherman's troops on his march to the sea. This 1851 navy model features a brass frame, blued parts, brass backstrap and triggerguard, hexagon barrel, and a walnut navy size grip. A beautiful replica to add to your collection!

October in Confederate History

Battle of Galveston Harbor

The battle was fought at Galveston, Texas on October 4, 1862, during the American Civil War. After attempts to blockade the Texas coastline were unsuccessful, the Union Navy decided to attempt to capture the port of Galveston. While Galveston was defended by Confederate forces, most of the cannons in the city's defenses were removed, as Galveston was thought to be indefensible. On October 4, five Union naval vessels commanded by Commander William B. Renshaw approached Galveston, and a single ship, USRC Harriet Lane was sent into Galveston Bay under a flag of truce.

The Confederates, commanded by Colonel Joseph J. Cook, could not get a boat to Harriet Lane in a timely manner, and the Union ship left the bay. The Confederate boat headed for the Union fleet, which moved towards the bay under flags of truce to meet it. Misunderstandings led to artillery fire, although a four-day truce was eventually made. The terms of the truce were unclear, and the Confederates used the truce to evacuate the city, which was initially objected to by Renshaw. At the expiration of the truce, Union troops landed in Galveston and raised the United States flag over the city. The Confederates recaptured Galveston on January 1, 1863, in the Battle of Galveston. The battlefield has lost historical integrity due to development and changes in the shoreline.
