

SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS
Texas Division
2ND BRIGADE
Purple Heart Medal

For every Purple Heart awarded, there is a story, a legacy, and a sacrifice that demands our gratitude and respect. It is not merely a decoration; it is a promise – a promise to never forget the price of liberty and to forever cherish the memory of those who fought so valiantly for it.

Emblazoned with the likeness of General John Bell Hood, this distinguished honor carries the memory of one whose life was marked by exceptional bravery during some of the fiercest battles in history. General Hood's own sacrifices are etched in the annals of time, a poignant reminder of the human cost of conflict. Wounded twice in the crucible of war, his left arm rendered mostly useless and his right leg amputated, Hood's unwavering resolve remains an inspiration to all who strive for fortitude in the face of hardship.
